A Notable Wedding in Milford Last Even-

A very pretty home wedding took place last evening in Milford at the resdence of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Clark, when Miss Charlotte A. Clark, formerly for several years, a teacher in the Dwight school, this city, was united in wedlock to Mr. Frank E. Hine of Milford, Rev. Mr. Morse, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating. The ceremony took place at 5:30. The happy pair stood under an arch of chrysanthemums and smilax. The bride wore a very handsome white satin gown, cut en train and lace trimmed, and wore also a white tulle veil and carried a marriage bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Grace Ritter of Edgewood avenue, this city, daughter of the late John C. Ritter, who was for many years a prominent business man here She looked charming in a gown of white and blue. The groomsman was S. N. Hammond, Yale '93, a classmate of the groom, who also graduated in '93. The and Mrs. Henry Buchter left yesterday ushers were George F. Platt of New Mr. J. R. Gallagher of 20 Edwards Pa., C. E. The Art of Framing Fictures. Many people fail to realize that the proper framing of a picture is nearly as important as the picture itself, a the best effect of a fine picture may easily be lost through improper setting. This is not an essay upon the art framing, but simply a notice that a Cutler's art store the proper framing of pictures has been a matter of dill gent study for more than thirty years and that during all that time the facilitles for doing the best work hav been constantly increasing until nov it may be safely said that there are few establishments in the country where good work is done and so much good aste displayed. During the quiet sum ner now passed Mr. Cutler has bee preparing an elegant stock of the fines of frames for miniatures, photography and other small pictures, and material Tuesday night, which it was feared at for making up the most suitable frame for autotypes, engravings, photograv ures, water color drawings and oil paintings.
